Columbusing and the art of modern Indigenous Living

Gregg Deal is an artist and member of the Pyramid Lake Paiute Nation. His body of work, from performance art to murals and more, explores what it means to be indigenous in the 21st century. Deal has served as artist in residence at the Denver Art Museum as well as the Art Students League of Denver. His most recent work for the Art Students League is featured here in honor of Indigenous Persons Day on Oct. 11.

Nearly 45,000 volunteers provide about 1.8 million hours to keep SCFD-funded organizations running in an average year

Engage with Us

Help us welcome Tim!

SCFD Board of Directors news

The SCFD is governed by a board of directors with representation from district member counties Adams, Arapahoe, Boulder, Broomfield, Denver, Douglas and Jefferson. The board oversees district funding and ensures the district is running the way voters intended. The board meets eight times a year and all meetings are open to the public.

- The next meeting of the SCFD Board of Directors will be held virtually at 1 p.m. on Oct. 28. Get more information for joining meetings and see the full calendar of 2021 board meetings.

Board Spotlight

Each month, we take a moment to introduce you to one of our board members. This month's spotlight focuses on Broomfield County Representative, Suzanne Crawford.

Suzanne Crawford, Broomfield County Appointee

Suzanne has been the Chief Executive Officer of the Sister Carmen Community Center, a Family Resource Center in Lafayette, CO since January 2005 and has over 26 years of non-profit and management experience. Originally from Texas, Suzanne has lived in Colorado for 22 years. When not at work, she loves riding her motorcycle, paddle boarding, painting, reading, hiking with her dogs and spending time in Ecuador (her second home). Her first term expires in February 2023.
