

Wishing you and yours the happiest of holidays

We fund culture.

During 2020, organizations from across the sector lost about a decade's worth of financial growth. That's why funding you make possible through the SCFD is so critical. In 2020, you provided $64 million in stabilizing funding to ensure that our arts and cultural organizations endure. That's why we can proudly say that not a single organization funded by the SCFD closed during the pandemic. You can see a full economic impact report recently released by the Colorado Business Committee for the Arts.

Engage with Us

Make a plan for Colorado Gives Day

Thousands of nonprofit organizations across the state rely on Colorado Gives Day to raise valuable resources for their mission. Don't forget the arts, culture and scientific organizations you love when you are making your giving plan. You can learn more.

Colorado Gives Day is Dec. 7. Make a plan to give.

SCFD Board of Directors news

The SCFD is governed by a board of directors with representation from district member counties Adams, Arapahoe, Boulder, Broomfield, Denver, Douglas, and Jefferson. The board oversees district funding and ensures the district is running the way voters intended. The board meets eight times a year and all meetings are open to the public.

- The SCFD Board of Directors has finished its 2021 calendar. The next meeting of the board will be held in 2022. Get more information for joining meetings and all past board information and resolutions.