

In gratitude

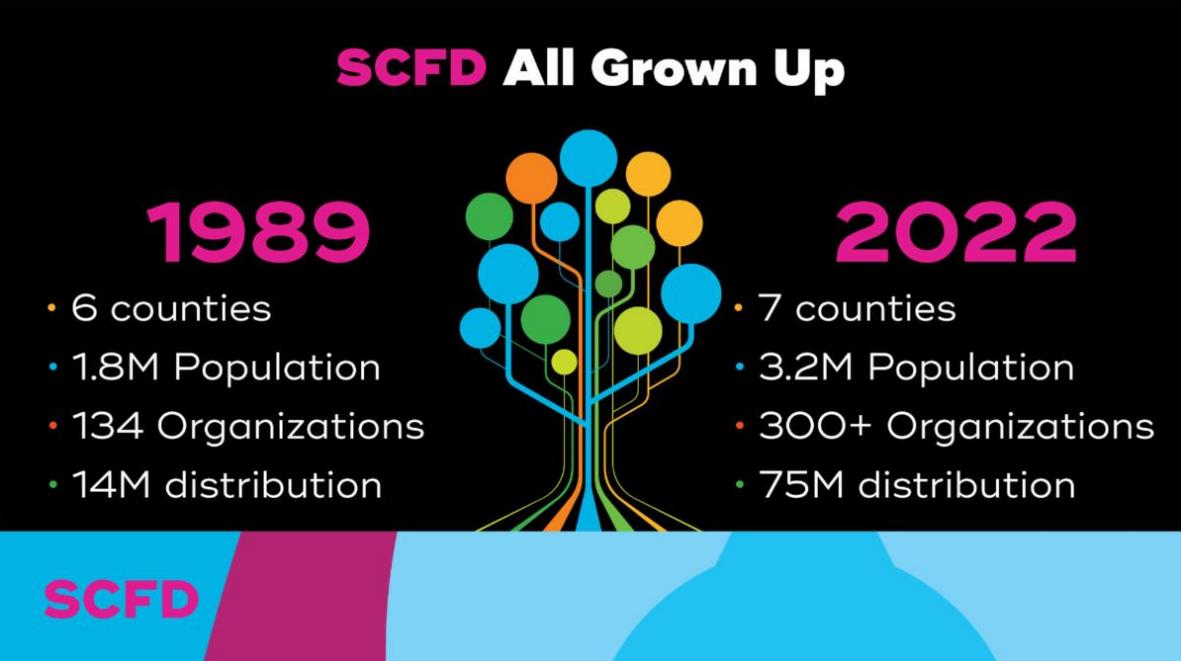

November is often a time of self-reflection and expressions of gratitude as the seasons change and we prepare for the coming of the new year. This year, we're mindful at the SCFD of the contributions each one of you have made to the success of the more than 300 organizations we fund. Your ongoing support of the district over more than three decades has meant a world of wonder for each of us, the richness of art, culture and science for our communities and economic vibrancy for our region. You have made "a penny for your arts" add up to a cultural tapestry like no other in our nation.

Thank you.

Want to learn more and see all the organizations we fund?

We fund culture.

Thanks to the voters and residents of the seven-county metro area, SCFD has come a long way in its more than 30 years of existence.

Engage with Us

Don't miss Denver Arts Week

Don't miss this opportunity to visit your favorite venues and meet new arts and culture organizations. Things kick off on Friday, Nov. 4 and continue for the entire week. Wonder awaits you.

Colorado Gives Day is just around the corner

Your favorite non-profits rely on Colorado Gives Day to help them raise funds for the experiences you treasure. Consider making an end-of-year charitable contribution to an arts, culture or scientific organization you love on Dec. 6. You can find out how.

SCFD Board of Directors news

The SCFD is governed by a board of directors with representation from district member counties Adams, Arapahoe, Boulder, Broomfield, Denver, Douglas, and Jefferson. The board oversees district funding and ensures the district is running the way voters intended. The board meets eight times a year and all meetings are open to the public.

- The next meeting of the SCFD Board of Directors will be held virtually at 1 p.m. on Nov. 17. Get information for joining meetings and see the full calendar of 2022 board meetings.